

200 XP

Knowledge check

4 minutes

Check your knowledge

1. When configuring meeting policies, how does a per-organizer policy work?

- ☐ The per-organizer policy applies only to meeting organizers.
- ☐ The per-organizer policy applies to meeting organizers and meeting participants.
- ☐ The per-organizer policy applies only to meeting participants.

2. What's required for a meeting participant to start a meeting recording?

- ☐ The participant has an assigned policy with Allow cloud recording set to On, and they're part of the same organization.
- ☐ The participant has an assigned policy with Allow IP video set to On, and they're part of the same organization.
- ☐ The participant has an assigned policy with Allow cloud recording and Allow IP video, and is an external user.

3. When should you create a custom meeting policy?

- ☐ When you want to prevent all users from creating transcriptions of meetings.
- ☐ When you want to prevent everyone except users who work in Marketing from creating transcriptions of meetings.
- ☐ When you want to prevent guests joining meetings for your organization.

4. Your organization doesn't have a Microsoft Stream license. How long are meeting recordings stored?

- ☐ Indefinitely, or until they're deleted.
- ☐ The time a recording is stored is set in the meetings policy.
- ☐ For 20 days.

Check your answers

---